2. According to your bylaws any individual or legal entity can be a member of OEMR upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the directors. Are the professionals, vendors, and companies who support and improve the OpenEMR software package members of your organization?
3. You indicated that the services provided by a Certified OpenEMR Contributor generally include OpenEMR installation, maintenance, and customization. These services are provided-for a fee agreed upon by the customer and the Certified OpenEMR Contributor. Some of the Certified OpenEMR Contributors do offer customized versions of OpenEMR, which are property of the vendor. Are Certified OpenEMR Contributors also members of OEMR?
4. You clarified that OEMR was formed to ensure that all people, regardless of race, socioeconomic status or geographic location, have access to high-quality medical care through the donation of free, open source medical software and service relating to that software. However, it appears that the software primarily benefits the private practices of physicians help run their medical office or medical clinic. How does your organization provide a public benefit in support of your stated purposes?
