Dear Applicant:

Why you are receiving this letter

We need more information to complete consideration of your determination letter request.

What you must do

Provide responses to the questions listed on the enclosed Information Request using the submission instructions in the document. Your response should be submitted by the due date listed above. If you need additional time to respond, please call me at the contact telephone number listed at the top of this letter.

If you don't respond

If we don't hear from you by the due date, we'll close your case without making a determination, and we won't refund any user fee you paid. You'll need to submit a new request and any applicable user fee payment if you want us to reconsider your request.

Also, if you don't respond to the information request by the due date, we'll conclude that you have not taken all reasonable steps to complete your determination request. Under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 7428(b)(2), you must take all reasonable steps to secure a determination under IRS procedures in a timely manner and exhaust all administrative remedies available to you within the IRS before a court can issue a declaratory judgment regarding your determination. If you fail to timely provide the information we need to act on your request, you may lose your rights to a declaratory judgment under Section 7428.

Additional information

If you have questions, you can call me at the contact number listed at the top of this letter. If you have concerns after speaking with me, you can call my supervisor, whose name and telephone number are also listed at the top of this letter.

The Taxpayer Advocate Service (TAS) is an independent organization within the IRS that can help protect your taxpayer rights. TAS can offer you help if your tax problem is causing a hardship or you've tried but haven't been able to resolve your problem with the IRS. If you qualify for TAS assistance, which is always free, TAS will do everything possible to help you. Visit taxpayeradvocate.irs.gov or call 1-877-777-4778.

Sincerely,

2. According to your bylaws any individual or legal entity can be a member of OEMR upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the directors. Are the professionals, vendors, and companies who support and improve the OpenEMR software package members of your organization?
3. You indicated that the services provided by a Certified OpenEMR Contributor generally include OpenEMR installation, maintenance, and customization. These services are provided-for a fee agreed upon by the customer and the Certified OpenEMR Contributor. Some of the Certified OpenEMR Contributors do offer customized versions of OpenEMR, which are property of the vendor. Are Certified OpenEMR Contributors also members of OEMR?
4. You clarified that OEMR was formed to ensure that all people, regardless of race, socioeconomic status or geographic location, have access to high-quality medical care through the donation of free, open source medical software and service relating to that software. However, it appears that the software primarily benefits the private practices of physicians help run their medical office or medical clinic. How does your organization provide a public benefit in support of your stated purposes?

How to submit the requested information (do's and don'ts)

- Don't include any personal identifying information like bank account or social security numbers that could result in identity theft or other adverse consequences if publicly disclosed. If we approve your application for exemption, we're generally required by law to make the application and the information you submit in response to this letter available for public inspection. If you have questions about the public inspection of your application or other documents, please call me.
- Do include the following declaration with your response, signed by one of your principal officers or directors:

Under penalties of perjury, I declare that I have examined this information, including accompanying documents, and, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information
