Section 6110 of the Internal Revenue Code provides that copies of certain rulings, technical advice memoranda, and determination letters will be open to public inspection after deletions are made. Rulings and technical advice memoranda will be open to public inspection in the Freedom of Information (FOI) Reading Room, 1111 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20224, where they may be read and copied by anyone interested.

In accordance with section 6110, we intend to make the enclosed deleted copy of your ruling open to public inspection. We made the deletions indicated in accordance with section 6110(c), which requires us to delete:

1. The names, addresses, and other identifying details of the person the ruling pertains to, and of any other person identified in the ruling [other than a person making a "third party communication" (see back of this notice)].
2. Information specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive Order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy, and which is in fact properly classified under such Executive Order.
3. Information specifically exempted from disclosure by any statute (other than the Internal Revenue Code) which is applicable to the Internal Revenue Service.
4. Trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person that are privileged or confidential.
5. Information which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.
6. Information contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, or for use of, an agency that regulates or supervises financial institutions.
7. Geological and geophysical information and data (including maps) concerning wells.

These are the only grounds for deleting material. We made the indicated proposed deletions after considering any suggestions for deletions you may have made prior to issuance of the ruling.

If You Agree with the proposed deletions you do not need to take any further action. We will place the deleted copy in the National Office FOI Reading Room on the "Date Open to Public Inspection" shown on this notice.

If You Disagree with the proposed deletions, please return the deleted copy and show, in brackets, any additional information you believe should be deleted. Include a statement supporting your position. Only material falling within the seven categories listed above may be deleted. Your statement should specify which of these seven categories is applicable with respect to each additional deletion you propose. Send your deleted copy and statement to:

It must be postmarked no later than the "Last Date to Request IRS Review" shown on this notice. We will give your submission careful consideration. If we determine we cannot make any or all of the additional deletions you suggest, we will so advise you no later than 20 days after we receive your submission. You will then have the right to file a petition in the United States Tax Court if you disagree with us. Your petition must be filed no later than the "Last Date to Petition Tax Court" shown on this notice, which is 60 days after the mailing date of this notice. If a petition is filed in the Tax Court, the disputed portion(s) of the ruling will not be placed in the Reading Room until after a court decision becomes final.

If no petition is filed in the Tax Court, the deleted copy of your ruling will be made open to public inspection on the date shown on this notice. If the transaction to which the ruling relates will not be completed by then, you may request a delay of public inspection.

Request for Delay of Public Inspection

You may request a delay of public inspection of up to 90 days, or 15 days after the transaction is completed, whichever is earlier. The request for delay must be received by the IRS no later than the "Last Date to Request Delay" shown on this notice, which is 60 days after the mailing date of this notice. Send your request for delay to:

Internal Revenue Service
Attention: CC:PA:LPD:DLS
Ben Franklin Station
Post Office Box 7604
Washington, DC 20044

You may request a second delay of up to an additional 180 days (or 15 days after the completion of the transaction, whichever is earlier) if the transaction is not completed by the end of the original delay period and if good cause exists for additional delay. We must receive a request for a second delay at the above address at least 30 days before the original delay period ends.

Additional Disclosure

After the deleted copy of your ruling is placed in our Reading Room, any person may request us to make additional portions of the ruling open to public inspection. If we receive a request that involves disclosure of names, addresses, or taxpayer identifying numbers, we will deny the request and you will not be contacted. If that request involves disclosure of anything other than names, addresses, or taxpayer identifying numbers, we will contact you before taking action.

Third Party Communications

The enclosed deleted copy of your ruling may contain the notation "Third Party Communication." This indicates that IRS received a communication (written or oral) regarding your ruling request from a person outside the IRS (other than you or your authorized representative). The date of the communication and the category of the person making the contact (such as "Congressional" or "Trade Association") will be indicated.
